THECOOPERUNION

Unlocking Your Potential: Workplace Accommodations

Tuesday, April 14 | 12–1:30 PM

41 Cooper Square, Room 101

Designed for students, this session will help you learn how to advocate for yourself and navigate workplace accommodations with confidence.

Learn...

- The process to request an accommodation
- How to advocate for that request
- What rights you have in the workplace

Food will be served.

Guest Presenters

Cecilia Ortiz brings professional experience in workplace accommodations as a Reasonable Accommodation Coordinator at Con Edison and holds an MS in Disability Services in Higher Education from CUNY.

David O'Brien is an attorney with extensive experience advocating for underserved youth and individuals facing discrimination, with a background in criminal, family, and workplace justice.

RSVP not required