DIONISIO CORTES ORTEGA (ARCH '09)

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22 | 12:00 PM

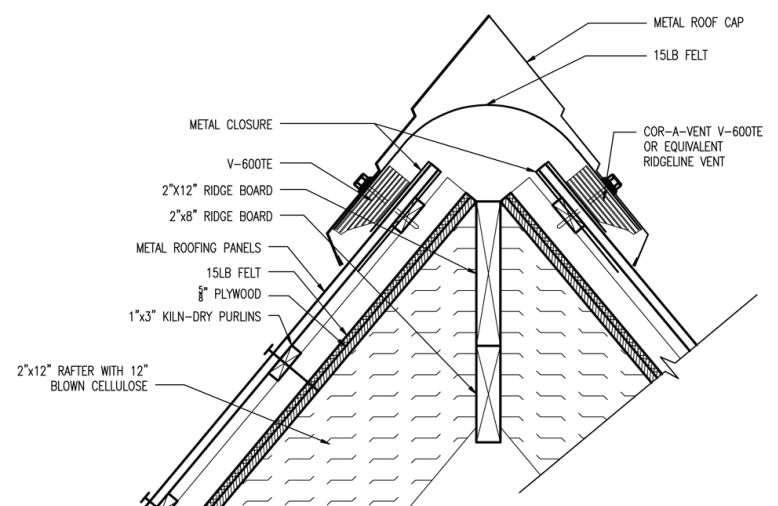

ALUMNISPAC | STUDENT RESIDENCE | 3RD FLOOR

Dionisio Cortes Ortega is an architect and visual artist based in New York. He currently works for a small architecture firm in Manhattan and is pursuing his architecture license. Mr. Cortes also works as an independent consultant for Compagnia Colombari, Studioftb and KKProjects, applying his skills in architecture, film, and design. In his own time, Mr. Cortes develops personal projects that involve lunar eclipses, spicy taco salsa, and a small cottage.

Mr. Cortes will give advice about how to juggle a variety of jobs and still keep an art and design practice alive in New York City.

Mr. Cortes will show examples of past and current work, and discuss what he wishes to accomplish in the future.

For more information about Mr. Cortes's work, see <http://www.dcorteso.com/>.
