It should be noted that many of our international students also identify with a specific ethnicity; those figures are not included in the charts above, but are included in our overall breakdown on page 2.