

NEW YORK

Cooper Union Gets New President

by on Feb 22, 2011 • 6:08 am No Comments

Dr. Jamshed Bharucha has been announced as 12th President for the Cooper Union. He will resume his post from July 1st, 2011. Currently Dr. Bharucha is Provost and Senior Vice President of Tufts University in Medford, MA. His duties includes recruiting deans and faculty; tenure and promotions; driving fundraising and budgetary priorities; advancing diversity; and managing the International Board of Overseers. He works closely with the Academic Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees to ensure the quality and integrity of the university's programs and policies. The Office of the Provost is also responsible for the library system, international and industry collaborations, and the ten Boards of Overseers.

More Information available on Cooper Union Website.

<http://newyorkwala.com/?p=402>