The Touch of Light
A talk by
Juhani Pallasmaa

Presented by the Irwin S. Chanin School of Architecture at The Cooper Union and co-sponsored by The Architecture League of New York

Juhani Pallasmaa, the enormously prolific and internationally renowned architect and writer will present the Feltman Lecture in The Great Hall of The Cooper Union on Tuesday evening April 5th at 6:30PM. The lecture, “The Touch of Light,” will address the experiential substance of light and the power of light to articulate architecture, to make space literate and to activate the interplay between thought and form. Pallasmaa is the author of over 300 essays and has published thirty books. He is an honorary Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and was the 2009 recipient of the Arnold W. Brunner memorial Prize from the American Academy of Arts and Letters. He recently completed the Kamppi Center in central Helsinki.

This lecture is made possible by the Ellen and Sidney Feltman Fund established at The Cooper Union to advance the principles and benefits of lighting design through the exploration of the practical, philosophical and aesthetic attributes of light and illumination.
