Elina Alayeva will talk about her experience as a Fulbright Fellow in British Columbia, Canada. Ms. Alayeva undertook a study of First Nations community involvement in education capacity building, particularly in the area of math and science curriculum development in Native-run schools. She will discuss her research, travels and experiences working with several First Nations communities in Canada.

Gwen Hyman, Director of the Center for Writing & Language Arts and The Cooper Union’s Fulbright Program Adviser, will join Ms. Alayeva to field questions about applying for a Fulbright Fellowship.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14\n12 NOON\NMENSCHEL ROOM\NSTUDENT RESIDENCE\n4TH FLOOR

STUDENTS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN APPLYING FOR A FULBRIGHT FELLOWSHIP ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND THIS INFORMATION SESSION.
Elina Alayeva will talk about her experience as a Fulbright Fellow in British Columbia, Canada. Ms. Alayeva undertook a study of First Nations community education and literacy, focusing on the area of health and science curriculum development in First Nations schools. She will discuss her research, travels and experiences working with several First Nations communities in Canada.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14
12 NOON
MENSCHEL ROOM
STUDENT RESIDENCE
4TH FLOOR

Elina Alayeva will talk about her experience as a Fulbright Fellow in British Columbia, Canada. Ms. Alayeva undertook a study of First Nations community education and literacy, focusing on the area of health and science curriculum development in First Nations schools. She will discuss her research, travels and experiences working with several First Nations communities in Canada.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14
12 NOON
MENSCHEL ROOM
STUDENT RESIDENCE
4TH FLOOR

Elina Alayeva will talk about her experience as a Fulbright Fellow in British Columbia, Canada. Ms. Alayeva undertook a study of First Nations community education and literacy, focusing on the area of health and science curriculum development in First Nations schools. She will discuss her research, travels and experiences working with several First Nations communities in Canada.