

Michael Maltzan, FAIA, is the founder and design principal of Michael Maltzan Architecture. Through a deep belief in architecture's role in our cities and landscapes, he has succeeded in creating new physical, cultural, and social connections across a range of scales and program types including educational, institutional, cultural, and commercial projects.

Michael received an M.Arch from the Graduate School of Design, Harvard University, and BFA and B.Arch degrees from the Rhode Island School of Design. He is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and received the 2016 AIA Los Angeles Gold Medal. He is a recipient of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Architecture Award and was elected to the National Academy of Design in 2020. He currently serves on the Dean's Leadership Council at the Harvard Graduate School of Design and the Visiting Committee to the GSD. Michael is the recipient of the 2025 Cooper Hewitt National Design Award in Architecture, and the 2025 AIA California Maybeck Award.

Michael is a licensed architect in California, Florida, New York, Ohio, and Texas; a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects; and a GSA Design Excellence Program Peer.
