

THE COOPER UNION
School of Art

Exchange Program Evaluation Form

Instructions for students:

When you return from exchange, set up a single meeting to present your work done on exchange to all three of your faculty recommenders. This meeting must take place by the end of the eighth week of your return semester. The meeting may be held in person or via Teams/Zoom. Professor Beverly Joel should also be in attendance in her role as director of the exchange program. At the conclusion of the meeting, your faculty recommenders will determine whether your work merits 12 credits of Advanced Studio.

Instructions for faculty:

Upon returning from exchange, a student is expected to present work equivalent to what would be accomplished in four studio courses at Cooper Union. Please confer with the student's other two faculty evaluators to determine whether this expectation has been met. Discuss any questions or concerns with Professor Beverly Joel, the director of the exchange program.
