

TU Dresden, Germany

Scholarships for a Research Experience

May – August 2020 (4 – 12 weeks)

TU Dresden is one of 11 universities of excellence in Germany: strong in research, offering first-rate programs with an overwhelming diversity, with close ties to culture, industry and society. TU Dresden is home to a large variety of research centers and institutes, covering virtually every academic discipline.

Program Details:

- This research summer program offers senior undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to gain cutting-edge research experience in a wide variety of scientific fields. Participants will work with doctoral students, scientists or professors as part of on-going research projects at TU Dresden.
- Scientific fields: Engineering Sciences, Science, Humanities and Social Sciences
- Working language: English
- min. 4 weeks – up to 12 weeks in the period between May and August 2020

Scholarship:

- Monthly scholarship of 800 € to cover the following costs: accommodation (approx. 250 €/month), cost of living (approx. 450 €/month), health insurance (approx. 80 €/month), accident and personal liability insurance (approx. 20 €/month), semester fee (including ticket for public transport) 260 € per semester; TU Dresden charges no tuition fees
- 600 € travel subsidy (one-time payment)

Application documents:

- Nomination for the program by your home institution's exchange coordinator / nomination letter
- Letter of motivation naming the institute or chair, in which s/he wishes to carry out his/her research
- Transcript of Records
- CV

Application Deadline:

13th January, 2020

Contact and further information:

International Office

<https://tu-dresden.de/kooperation/internationales/AcademicExchange/REP>

✉ research_internship@mailbox.tu-dresden.de

Get a first impression of Dresden:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SbB0Ot1rgoc>