

EVENT

Artists & Archives: Robert Dell, Environmental Alchemy

Tuesday, March 10, 7pm
The Cube (E15-001)

Geothermal engineer, progenitor of sustainable art, and 1993-97 CAVS Fellow, Dell will speak about aesthetics and engineering and his work in geothermal sculpture and energy reclamation.

Artists and Archives brings guests from the art community to explore MIT's collections as a living resource that inspires creative work as well as traditional research.

Co-sponsored by the ACT Archives and Special Collections and MIT Libraries' Distinctive Collections
