

FULBRIGHT GRANT

INFORMATION SESSION

WITH PAUL NIKULIN, CE '06

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14
12:00 NOON
ALUMNISPACE
STUDENT RESIDENCE
3RD FLOOR

Paul Nikulin will talk about his experience as a Fulbright Fellow in Estonia. Mr. Nikulin explored residential property from two periods of Estonian history as well as ongoing real estate development in the country's capital, Tallinn. Mr. Nikulin addressed aspects of engineering, architecture, and social and economic policy within this space and attempted to unite varying, and at times conflicting, perspectives in a harmonious analysis of the housing stock in Tallinn.

Gwen Hyman, Director of the Center for Writing & Language Arts and The Cooper Union's Fulbright Program Adviser, will join Mr. Nikulin to provide information and field questions about applying for a Fulbright Grant.

STUDENTS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN APPLYING FOR A FULBRIGHT GRANT
ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND THIS INFORMATION SESSION.
